

9 February 2026

Dear ToTV Users,

Please be informed that the publication of ToTV V1 and ToTV V2 File Download Folders is now up to date.

The delayed V2 files for 7 and 8 February 2026 have now been processed along with today's V1 and V2 files. Please note that the files generated for 6 February are significantly larger than usual, this is related to the issue that caused the delay in processing and the DSB will be producing an RCA in due course.

The links to the recent V1 and V2 folders have been included below for your reference:

7 February 2026

Dear ToTV Users,

Further to the update sent out yesterday we would like to advise that the DSB expects the V1 and V2 file download output to be generated by the end of today. Please note that the V1 and V2 file download output for 7 February 2026 has been delayed, however, these files are expected to be published shortly after the publication of the files for the 6 February 2026.

Further updates will be provided when the 6 February 2026 files have been published and also when the 7 February 2026 files have been published.

We would like to apologize for the delay in publishing the files for these two dates and any inconvenience this has caused.

Please contact DSB Technical Support if you have any questions or concerns.

Regards,

DSB Technical Support Team
