SERVICE BUREAU

22 May 2026

REMINDER: One week left to share your feedback
via the DSB Annual Industry Consultation

Dear DSB Users,

There is one week left to respond to the Derivatives Service Bureau (DSB) annual industry consultation.

All stakeholders are encouraged to respond to the consultation, or parts thereof, to enable consideration on how to take proposals forward.

The consultation paper is available here and remains open until 4pm UTC on Friday 29 May 2026, with feedback to be sent to industry\_consultation@anna-dsb.com.

The topics on which the DSB seeks stakeholder views are:

- Fair allocation of cost and potential user model changes to better align the fee model with data consumption
- Proposed evolution of the Distributor user type to create a fair and proportionate tiering of Distributor fees
- Refinement of classification and communication regarding Acceptable Use breaches to reduce monitoring and support costs
- Functionality and alternative cost models for the Alternative Identifier functionality

Stakeholders can continue to review the consultation materials and submit any questions or feedback using the consultation link before the deadline.

Regards,

DSB Technical Support Team

NOTIFICATION: Share your feedback via the DSB
Annual Industry Consultation

Dear DSB Users,

The Derivatives Service Bureau (DSB) annual industry consultation is now open. This year the consultation focuses on the DSB's shift to a new, discovery led phase of engagement, with the goal of gathering insights into the diverse community now using and deriving value from DSB data.

The consultation paper is available here and is open until 4pm UTC on Friday 29 May 2026, with feedback to be sent to industry\_consultation@anna-dsb.com.

The topics on which the DSB seeks stakeholder views are:

- Fair allocation of cost and potential user model changes to better align the fee model with data consumption
- Proposed evolution of the Distributor user type to create a fair and proportionate tiering of Distributor fees
- Refinement of classification and communication regarding Acceptable Use breaches to reduce monitoring and support costs
- Functionality and alternative cost models for the Alternative Identifier functionality

All stakeholders are encouraged to respond to the consultation, or parts thereof, to enable consideration on how to take these proposals forward.

The DSB will host a webinar at 12pm UTC Wednesday 13 May 2026 on the consultation, providing stakeholders with an opportunity to raise questions. Please register for the webinar using this link.

Regards,
