

DSB Main Terms

Introduction

- (a) These Main Terms apply to services provided by the Derivatives Service Bureau (DSB) Ltd (Company No. 10542063), a company incorporated under the laws of England and Wales whose registered office is First Floor, Randall House, 6 Dowgate Hill, EC4R 2SU, United Kingdom (“DSB”) to identify OTC Derivatives.
- (b) The User has acquired a Subscription to a DSB Service. The DSB has agreed to allow the User to access and use the DSB Service and Data on behalf of itself and the Affiliates specified on the Subscription Form on the terms of the Agreement, which includes these Main Terms.

I. Subscriptions

- I.1 The User may have one or more Subscriptions, the details of which will be reflected on a single or multiple Subscription Forms (as required by the DSB). Each Subscription forms a separate legal agreement between the parties comprised of the following elements:

- (a) Sections A (Introduction) and Section B (User Details) of the Subscription Form;
- (b) the Subscription Details for the relevant Subscription in Section C (Subscriptions) of the Subscription Form;
- (c) these terms, being clauses 1 to 21 (the “Main Terms”); and
- (d) the Policies, (collectively “the Agreement”).

Any inconsistency between the terms of the Agreement shall be resolved in descending order of precedence as set out in this paragraph I.1.

- I.2 The DSB may amend:

- (a) the Main Terms or Additional Terms by giving ninety (90) days’ notice in writing to the User at any time where clause I.2(c) does not apply;
- (b) the terms of a Policy, provided the DSB gives the User notice in writing in accordance with the prescribed notice period set out therein in relation to material changes where they have a direct impact on the User. Where there is no prescribed notice period the DSB will give the User as much notice in writing as is reasonably possible to such changes and in any case not less than ninety (90) days; and
- (c) the Main Terms, Additional Terms or the terms of a Policy with immediate effect where in the DSB’s reasonable opinion the safety or sustainability of a DSB Service is in doubt, and such notice being a “Variation Notice”. Where terms incorporated by reference into this Agreement are available at a URL referenced in this Agreement, the DSB may update the URL from time to time without being required to issue a Variation Notice provided that the new URL is either accessible via the original URL or easily accessible on the DSB’s website.

- I.3 While the DSB shall endeavour to make Users aware of any modifications to the Main Terms, Additional Terms and Policies, it is the User’s responsibility to be aware of any modifications which are made to the Main Terms and Policies and to ensure that the User systems, procedures and communication links are at all times suitable for use with the DSB Service.

- I.4 Subject to clause 9.5, the User may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by notice in writing to the DSB if any such change to the Main Terms, Additional Terms or the terms of a Policy in accordance with clause I.2 materially increases the scope of the User’s obligations or materially restricts the scope of the User's rights under the Agreement, provided such notice is issued to the DSB within thirty (30) days following the date of the relevant Variation Notice.

- 1.5 Any variation to the Agreement which is not capable of being unilaterally amended by the DSB pursuant to clause 1.2 above shall be in writing and agreed between the parties.
- 1.6 Use of the DSB Service is conditional upon the User's acceptance of the Agreement as indicated by signing the Subscription Form containing the relevant Subscription Details. If the Subscription Form is not signed by the User, the User's continued use of the DSB Service shall constitute acceptance of the terms of the Agreement and the terms of the Agreement (as existing unsigned) shall govern the use of the DSB Service by the User.
- 1.7 For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions in the Agreement supersede any other agreements in place between the two parties specifically for the purpose of the DSB Service.

2. Commencement And Duration

- 2.1 The Agreement shall commence on the Commencement Date and, subject to its early termination in accordance with clauses 1.3, 16 or 19, continue in full force and effect until expiry of the Initial Subscription Period.
- 2.2 On the expiry of the Initial Subscription Period and each subsequent twelve (12) month period, the Agreement shall extend by a further period of twelve (12) months (the "Renewal Period") unless:
 - (a) the User gives the DSB written notice of non-renewal in accordance with clause 16.6; or
 - (b) in circumstances where the DSB is entitled to terminate the Agreement, the DSB gives the User written notice of non-renewal at least one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the expiry of the Initial Subscription Period or the then current Renewal Period (as applicable).
- 2.3 The Initial Subscription Period and all subsequent Renewal Period(s) (if any) shall together be referred to as the "Term".

3. Accessing The DSB Service

- 3.1 Access to the DSB Service will be provided in accordance with the Subscription Management and Connectivity Policy and following completion of all the applicable on-boarding processes set out in it and receipt by DSB of any prepayment required under the Charges Policy (if applicable). The DSB:
 - (a) may grant or restrict access to on-boarding to all or any part of the DSB Service in its absolute discretion at any time; and
 - (b) shall not be required to use any websites, platforms or portals provided or used by the User (including supplier management systems) or enter into any agreements other than the Agreement in connection with the User's access to and use of the DSB Service.
- 3.2 The User shall keep all details of any and all login details secret and shall implement and maintain adequate security measures to prevent access to the DSB Service by any person who is not authorised. The DSB recommends that login details are not reused across the DSB Service and other services accessed by the User.
- 3.3 Each User shall be categorised in accordance with the User Policy which shall govern the access and permissions that User is granted in respect of the DSB Service.
- 3.4 The User shall be responsible (at its own cost) for:
 - (a) the selection, provision, maintenance and support of the computer systems, technology and network infrastructure necessary for the User to access and use the DSB Service;

- (b) the installation and proper use of any virus detection/scanning program from time to time;
 - (c) co-operating with the DSB in all matters relating to the DSB Service;
 - (d) procuring all permissions, licences, waivers, consents, registrations, and approvals necessary to receive and use the DSB Service;
 - (e) compliance with any requirements in respect of its computer systems, technology and network infrastructure notified by the DSB from time to time (including the minimum technical requirements needed to properly access and use the DSB Service); and
 - (f) compliance with the Agreement, all Applicable Law and Regulations and all other reasonable requirements and instructions of the DSB relating to the access of and use of the DSB Service.
- 3.5 Notwithstanding any other provision in the Agreement, the User will use the DSB Service (including the Data) in accordance with the Acceptable Use Policy.
- 3.6 The User shall procure compliance by Affiliates and its End Users (as applicable) of any restrictions contained in the Agreement and accepts full responsibility at all times for any and all use of the DSB Service by its Affiliates.
- 3.7 Where the User is a Distributor or an Intermediary, it shall provide information to the DSB in respect of its End Users in accordance with paragraphs 6.4 or 7.6 of the User Policy. A User who is an Intermediary shall also procure that all eligible End Users as defined by paragraph 7.3 of the User Policy shall acquire a Subscription from the DSB prior to such End User being provided with the Data (unless otherwise agreed between the parties). In the context of the Agreement between the DSB and End User, the term “User” shall be understood as meaning the End User.
- 3.8 The User warrants that it will use the DSB Service only in its normal course of trade, business or profession.

4. The DSB Service

- 4.1 In consideration of the User’s registration, the mutual promises contained in this Agreement and payment of any Fees to the DSB (if applicable), the DSB shall provide the User with access to the DSB Service in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement.
- 4.2 The Data shall be provided in the manner and format notified to the User by the DSB in writing from time to time.
- 4.3 The DSB warrants that it: (a) has all licences, consents and authorisations necessary to provide the User with access to, and use of, the DSB Service in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement; (b) shall provide the DSB Service in accordance with all Applicable Laws to which it is subject as provider of the DSB Service. The DSB shall provide such cooperation as required by Applicable Laws and/or an Authority with jurisdiction over the User, at the User’s cost, in connection with the User’s use of, or access to, the DSB Service (including participation in reasonable testing exercises to the extent required by Applicable Laws and/or an Authority with jurisdiction over the User).
- 4.4 Without prejudice to any other rights set out under the Agreement, the DSB has sole discretion and control over, and may modify at any time in its absolute discretion with or without notice to the User, subject to clause 1.2: (i) the functionality, performance, configuration, appearance and content of the DSB systems; (ii) the availability of the DSB Service to any person or with respect to particular transactions at any particular place, time or location; and (iii) the Security Policy applicable to the DSB Service.
- 4.5 Save to the extent expressly set out in the Agreement including the Service Level Policy, the DSB does not give any warranties, representations or other commitments to the User as to the functionality, performance, transmission speeds, content, latency or accuracy of the DSB Service and all other warranties, conditions, representations, and terms whether written or oral, express or implied by statute, common law, custom, trade usage, course of dealing or otherwise, including, without limitation, satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose or use, accuracy, adequacy, completeness or timeliness are hereby excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.

- 4.6 The User assumes all responsibility and risk relating to its use of the DSB Service including any Data and the DSB shall have no liability for any reliance place upon or decisions taken by the User based on or with reference to the Data, in whole or in part.
- 4.7 Save to the extent expressly set out in the Agreement including the Service Level Policy, the User acknowledges and accepts that:
- (a) the DSB Service response times may vary due to market conditions, performance, access device location or other factors, and that access to the DSB Service may be limited or unavailable during periods of peak demand, market volatility, systems upgrades, maintenance or for other reasons; and
 - (b) the DSB does not provide any commitments regarding the performance or availability of the DSB Service.
- 4.8 The DSB is permitted to (and does) use subcontractors in the provision of some or all components of the DSB Service and remains responsible for their performance in accordance with this Agreement. Details of the DSB's subcontractors are set out on the DSB's website¹.
- 4.9 The User may request the DSB's latest ISO27001 certificate for audit purposes.
- 4.10 If the User meets the criteria stated in the DSB Subcontracting and Audit Policy: (i) additional terms apply to the DSB's use of subcontractors; and (ii) the DSB shall provide additional information for audit purposes, in each case in accordance with the DSB Subcontracting and Audit Policy.

5. Disclaimers

- 5.1 Save to the extent expressly set out in the Agreement including the Service Level Policy, the DSB does not give any warranties, representations or other commitments to the User as to the functionality, performance, transmission speeds, content, latency or accuracy of the DSB Service and all other warranties, conditions, representations, and terms whether written or oral, express or implied by statute, common law, custom, trade usage, course of dealing or otherwise, including, without limitation, satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose or use, accuracy, adequacy, completeness or timeliness are hereby excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 5.2 The User assumes all responsibility and risk relating to its use of the DSB Service including any Data and the DSB shall have no liability for any reliance place upon or decisions taken by the User based on or with reference to the Data, in whole or in part.
- 5.3 Save to the extent expressly set out in the Agreement including the Service Level Policy, the User acknowledges and accepts that:
- (a) the DSB Service response times may vary due to market conditions, performance, access device location or other factors, and that access to the DSB Service may be limited or unavailable during periods of peak demand, market volatility, systems upgrades, maintenance or for other reasons; and
 - (b) the DSB does not provide any commitments regarding the performance or availability of the DSB Service.

6. Service Levels

- 6.1 The DSB shall:
- (a) provide the DSB Service in accordance with the Service Levels set out in the Service Level Policy;
 - (b) manage and perform remedial actions in respect of faults or errors in the DSB Service or failure by the DSB to meet Service Levels (each an “Incident”) in accordance with the Service Level Policy; and
 - (c) provide the User with information relating to its performance against Service Levels and the occurrence and remediation of Incidents as set out in the Service Level Policy; and
 - (d) to the extent not already provided pursuant to clause 6.1(c), notify the User of developments which it reasonably considers are likely to have a material impact on the DSB’s ability to effectively provide the DSB Service in accordance with the Service Levels.

7. Acceptable Use Policy

- 7.1 The User shall comply and procure compliance by its Affiliates and End Users (to the extent applicable), with the Acceptable Use Policy.

8. Licence To Use Data

- 8.1 The User grants the DSB a royalty-free and non-exclusive licence during the Term to use all data and materials (including, subject to clause 13.3, the User Personal Data) provided by or on behalf of the User, Affiliates or End Users under the Agreement for the purpose of providing the DSB Service to all Users.
- 8.2 All Intellectual Property Rights relating to the DSB Service (including the Data) or made available by the DSB to enable access to the DSB Service as well as any data and information in any form whatsoever made available by the DSB in connection with the Agreement (the “DSB Intellectual Property”) will remain vested in the DSB or its licensors and the User, Affiliates or End Users shall not acquire any Intellectual Property Rights in or to the DSB Intellectual Property, and clause 8.6 shall apply if or to the extent that they might otherwise do so.
- 8.3 Subject to the other provisions of this Agreement (including this clause 8, the User Policy and Acceptable Use Policy and the Subscription Form), the DSB grants the User and its Affiliates that are entitled to the benefit of the Subscriptions (as specified on the Subscription Form) a revocable, non-exclusive licence to access, copy, reproduce, store, distribute, disclose or otherwise communicate the Data. For clarity, to the extent that any of the other provisions in this Agreement are more restrictive than the licence granted in this clause, the User shall comply with the more restrictive provisions.
- 8.4 The DSB shall notify the User of any third-party licence terms that apply to the Data in the Acceptable Use Policy. The User shall be responsible for obtaining the relevant licence rights from that third party to the extent required for the User’s intended use of the Data.
- 8.5 The User shall notify the DSB immediately on becoming aware of any distribution or usage of the Data by persons in breach of the restrictions under the Agreement and shall promptly suspend or terminate delivery of the Data to such persons until otherwise notified in writing by the DSB. The User shall, at its cost, take such measures as reasonably requested by the DSB to restrict and remedy any damage caused by distribution of the Data in breach of the Agreement.
- 8.6 If at any time, through the provision of the DSB Service or otherwise, the User, an Affiliate or an End User, by operation of law, comes to own Intellectual Property Rights in the DSB Intellectual Property, it shall, on request from the DSB, at its own expense assign such Intellectual Property Rights to the DSB and to the extent permitted by law, waive all moral rights (and analogous rights) worldwide in connection with such DSB Intellectual Property.

- 8.7 If the User receives a disclosure order from an Authority, it shall promptly notify the DSB of the required disclosure, and if requested provide reasonable assistance to the DSB to challenge such order, in each case to the extent not precluded from doing so by Applicable Law or Regulations.

9. Fees

- 9.1 The User shall pay the Fees to the DSB in accordance with the Charges Policy.
- 9.2 The User acknowledges and agrees that it shall be responsible for: (a) the payment of any charges levied by its own third-party telecommunications providers for the transfer or receipt of Data via the DSB Service; and (b) any costs the User incurs in obtaining and using any hardware, software or other equipment required to access and make use of the DSB Service.
- 9.3 The Fees, where applicable, and any other amounts payable by the User to the DSB under this Agreement are exclusive of applicable sales taxes including VAT.
- 9.4 The DSB shall invoice the User at the intervals stated in the Charges Policy.
- 9.5 Unless expressly stated otherwise in this Agreement, all sums payable by the User to the DSB under this Agreement are non-refundable.
- 9.6 Unless otherwise stated in the Charges Policy, the User shall pay the Fees to the DSB in Euros (€) within thirty (30) days of the User's receipt of an invoice. All payments shall be made in full without any set off, deduction or withholding whatsoever, save for such deductions or withholdings as are required by Applicable Law. If the User is required by Applicable Law to make any deduction or withholding from any payment to the DSB, the sum due in respect of such payment shall be increased so that, after the making of such deduction or withholding, the DSB receives a net sum equal to the sum it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been made.
- 9.7 Without prejudice to any other remedy available to the DSB under this Agreement or at law, if any invoice (or part thereof) or other amount which is due and payable under this Agreement to the DSB is not paid by the User to the DSB on or before the due date for payment:
- (a) the DSB shall be entitled to suspend the Subscription and/or any other Subscriptions held by the User (and the corresponding access to the DSB Services) immediately upon written notice to the User if the DSB has first sent a thirty (30) day written notice to the User requiring such payment and such payment is not made in full in cleared funds on or before the expiry of that thirty (30) day written notice; and
 - (b) the User shall be liable to pay interest and associated reasonable administration costs to the DSB on the outstanding sum from the relevant due date for payment until the date of actual payment in full (both before and after any judgment) at the rate of four per cent (4%) above the European Central Bank base rate for the period in question, calculated in arrears on a daily basis, and compounded monthly.
- 9.8 If the DSB exercises its right to suspend the User's Subscriptions in accordance with clause 9.7(a), the DSB shall withdraw the suspension and make access to the DSB Services available to the User as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt in cleared funds by the DSB of all amounts outstanding from the User including any interest and other amounts payable under clause 9.7.
- 9.9 In the event of any dispute regarding an amount payable under this Agreement, the User shall pay all undisputed amounts due. If the User disagrees with any amount invoiced for any reason or requires any further information with respect to any amount invoiced, it shall notify the DSB within twenty-eight (28) days after receiving the invoice, outlining the reason(s) for such disagreement. Thereafter, the DSB shall provide the User with such further information as the User may reasonably require in order to substantiate the invoiced amount. If the disagreement over the amount has not been resolved by the due date for payment of the invoice, the User shall pay such sum as is not in dispute or question and may withhold payment of the amount in dispute or question. If the DSB disputes that the User is entitled to any reduction in or to withhold the invoiced amount or the amount of any such reduction, then the matter shall be resolved by the parties pursuant to paragraph 4 of the Governance Policy.

10. Security

- 10.1 The parties shall comply with the provisions of the Security Policy.

11. Governance

- 11.1 The parties shall comply with the provisions of the Governance Policy.

12. Confidential Information

- 12.1 Each party undertakes to the other party:
- (a) to keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential;
 - (b) subject to clause 12.2, not to disclose the Confidential Information in whole or in part to any third party; and
 - (c) to use the Confidential Information solely for its own internal business purposes and not otherwise for its own benefit or the benefit of any third party.
- 12.2 Each party may disclose the Confidential Information referred to in clause 12.1:
- (a) to its Affiliates and such of its and its Affiliates' employees, directors, officers, agents, professional advisers, consultants, contractors and subcontractors as have a legitimate need to know. Each party will ensure that any employee, director, officer, agent, professional adviser or subcontractor to whom a disclosure is made is subject to equivalent obligations of confidentiality as those that bind the party under this clause. Each party shall be liable for the acts and omissions of such employees, directors, officers, agents, professional advisers and subcontractors that lead to a breach of that party's obligations under this clause 12; or
 - (b) in compliance with the legal requirements of a competent legal or other regulatory authority or government agency, or as otherwise required by Applicable Law or Regulation, provided that: (i) the party to which the Confidential Information relates has been notified by the party intending to disclose it of the intended disclosure prior to the disclosure taking place (where permitted to do so); and (ii) the party intending to disclose the Confidential Information (where permitted to notify) has provided such assistance as has been reasonably requested by the party to which the Confidential Information relates in order to restrict the scope of the intended disclosure to the maximum extent.
- 12.3 The obligations of confidentiality under this Agreement shall not apply (or shall cease to apply as the case may be) to any Confidential Information:
- (a) which becomes public knowledge other than as a result of a breach of this Agreement;
 - (b) is already in the receiving party's possession without an obligation of confidentiality prior to disclosure by the disclosing party in connection with this Agreement; or
 - (c) lawfully obtained by the receiving party without any obligation of confidentiality from a third party who was entitled to disclose it.

13. Data Protection

- 13.1 The parties acknowledge and agree that they will each be acting as independent data controllers in respect of any personal data submitted by the User to the DSB in connection with its use of the DSB Service or otherwise under this Agreement ("User Personal Data").

- 13.2 Subject to clause 13.3 below, each party shall be responsible for complying with the obligations imposed on a data controller by applicable data protection law, including to maintain or make any registrations and/or to obtain any authorisations required by applicable data protection law with respect to the User Personal Data under this Agreement.
- 13.3 The User shall, in respect of all User Personal Data, be responsible for:
- (a) the accuracy, quality, and legality of the User Personal Data that the User provides to the DSB; and
 - (b) prior to providing any User Personal Data to the DSB, providing to any individual whose User Personal Data the User submits to the DSB, such notices, or obtaining such consents, as are required to enable the DSB to process such User Personal Data in connection with the DSB's performance of the DSB Service, as is described in the Privacy Policy.
- 13.4 The DSB shall, in respect of all User Personal Data:
- (a) only process the User Personal Data to the extent and in such manner as is necessary for the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, as set out in the Privacy Policy;
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of the DSB's personnel who will access the User Personal Data and ensure that they are subject to appropriate duties of confidence in respect of the User Personal Data;
 - (c) apply the Security Policy to the extent applicable to the User Personal Data;
 - (d) subject to reasonable and appropriate confidentiality undertakings, provide to the User such information as the User may reasonably request about the DSB's data processing activities insofar as they relate to the User Personal Data;
 - (e) return or destroy the User Personal Data on termination of this Agreement for whatever reason, except to the extent that the DSB is required to keep the User Personal Data after termination of this Agreement in order to comply with its legal obligations or in connection with any actual or potential claim or litigation; and
 - (f) only process or transfer User Personal Data outside the European Economic Area and the United Kingdom in compliance with applicable data protection laws.

14. Anti-Bribery and Corruption

- 14.1 Each party shall during the Term:
- (a) comply with all Applicable Anti-Bribery Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws, Anti-Modern Slavery Laws and Sanctions Laws;
 - (b) implement and maintain adequate procedures designed to promote and achieve compliance with Applicable Anti-Bribery Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws and Sanctions Laws;
 - (c) where permitted by law, promptly report to the other party any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by it in connection with its access to and/or use of the DSB Service;
 - (d) if requested by the other party and where permitted by law, provide the other party with any reasonable assistance, at the other party's reasonable cost, to enable the other party to perform any activity required by any Authority for the purpose of compliance with any Applicable Anti-Bribery Laws to the extent that such compliance relates to the use of, or access to, the DSB Service; and

- (e) at the other party's reasonable request confirm in writing that it has complied with its obligations under this clause 14 and provide any information reasonably requested by the other party in support of such compliance.

14.2 Each party warrants and represents on an ongoing basis during the Term that it:

- (a) has not been convicted of violating any Applicable Anti-Bribery Laws or any offence involving corruption, fraud or dishonesty; or
- (b) so far as it is aware, has not been or is not the subject of any investigation, inquiry or enforcement proceedings by any Authority regarding any offence or alleged offence under any Applicable Anti-Bribery Law.

15. Limitation Of Liability

15.1 Nothing in this Agreement shall limit either party's liability in respect of any claims:

- (a) for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of such party;
- (b) resulting from any fraud including fraudulent misrepresentation made by such party; or
- (c) for which liability may not otherwise lawfully be limited or excluded, or, in the case of the User, limit the User's liability in respect of any breach of its obligations under clauses 12 and 14.

15.2 Subject to clauses 15.1, 15.3, 15.4 and 15.5 the DSB is only liable to the User in connection with this Agreement to the extent that: (i) Losses result directly from the DSB's Gross Negligence or Wilful Default; and (ii) such Losses are not otherwise limited or excluded under this Agreement.

15.3 Subject to clause 15.1, the DSB excludes all liability for any Losses arising out of or in connection with the DSB Service including:

- (a) the unavailability or inaccessibility of the DSB Service;
- (b) any interruption, delay or failure of the DSB Service or any connected and related systems, components, interfaces, equipment, documentation, materials and technology provided by the DSB;
- (c) any third party or DSB systems, networks and infrastructure which are used in connection with the DSB Service;
- (d) any incorrect, inaccurate, corrupt, incomplete, undelivered, misdirected or mislabelled Data;
- (e) any Data being rejected or not executed (including any Data rejected by an Authority for any reason);
- (f) any failure of the Data to meet the requirements set out in Regulations; or
- (g) any virus or harmful components or loss or damage to the User systems (where the DSB has taken reasonable steps to prevent against viruses and malware).

15.4 Subject to clause 15.1, neither party shall be liable to the other (or any person claiming under or through the other) whether in contract, in tort (including negligence), under statute or otherwise under or in connection with this Agreement for any:

- (a) loss of profit or revenue (except to the extent recoverable by the DSB under paragraph 9.2(b) of the User Policy); or

- (b) indirect or consequential Losses of whatever nature including any Losses of a type described in clause 15.4(a) above which could be regarded as indirect or consequential, in each case whether or not reasonably foreseeable, reasonably contemplatable, actually foreseen or actually contemplated by the DSB or the User at the time this Agreement is entered into.

15.5 Subject to clause 15.1, either party's total collective liability to the other (and any person claiming under or through the other) in contract, in tort (including negligence), under statute or otherwise, in respect of all claims arising during each of the Initial Subscription Period and any subsequent Renewal Periods shall not exceed the total Fees paid and/or payable by the User to the DSB in respect of that Initial Subscription Period or the relevant Renewal Period.

16. Termination and Suspension

16.1 Either party may terminate this Agreement:

- (a) immediately, by notice in writing to the other party where that party is in material breach of any of its obligations under Agreement (other than any failure by the User to make any payment in which event the provisions of clause 9.7 and clause 16.2 shall apply) if such breach is not capable of remedy or, where such breach is capable of remedy, where that party fails to remedy the breach within ten (10) Working Days of being notified of the breach in writing;
- (b) by notice in writing to the other party where that party becomes or is declared insolvent, has a liquidator, receiver or administrative receiver appointed or passes a resolution for winding up (otherwise than for the purpose of a solvent amalgamation or reconstruction) or if a court having proper authority makes an order to that effect or that party enters into administration, is the subject of an administrative order or proposes to or enters into any voluntary arrangement with its creditors in the context of a potential liquidation or where that party is the subject of any events or circumstances analogous to any of the events described in this clause 16.1(b) in any applicable jurisdiction, provided that DSB shall not exercise its rights under this 16.1(b) if the User promptly (and in any event within fourteen (14) Working Days of DSB's request) pays all Fees due and/or which will become due during Initial Subscription Period or the then current Renewal Period (as the case may be) in advance of the DSB Services or other services being provided under this Agreement; and
- (c) as otherwise set out in this Agreement.

16.2 Without prejudice to the termination rights set out in clause 16.1, the DSB may suspend the Subscription and the corresponding access to the DSB Service immediately without notice (save where explicitly stated otherwise) for such period as it reasonably deems necessary to investigate and, if reasonably practical, abate such matter:

- (a) where a prepayment is required under the Charges Policy and the User fails to make such prepayment prior to commencement of the relevant Renewal Period;
- (b) where a prepayment is not required, but the User fails to pay to the DSB any undisputed sum due and payable to the DSB under this Agreement and such sum remains unpaid for thirty (30) days after written notice from the DSB requiring such sum to be paid;
- (c) if, in the DSB's reasonable opinion, it is required to prevent any imminent threat to the security of the DSB Service;
- (d) if the User is in breach of the Acceptable Use Policy;
- (e) if the User is in breach of Applicable Law under or in connection with this Agreement;
- (f) if the DSB has reasonably determined (acting reasonably) that such User's continuing use of the DSB Service would, or could reasonably be expected to, result in adverse legal, financial, regulatory or reputational consequences for the DSB;

- (g) if the DSB has reasonably determined (acting reasonably) that such User's continuing use of the DSB Service would, or could reasonably be expected to, have a detrimental effect on the integrity or operation of the DSB Service; or
- (h) if the DSB has determined (acting reasonably) that it can exercise its rights under clause 16.1(a).

16.3 Where the DSB has suspended a Subscription in accordance with clause 16.2, the DSB:

- (a) may also suspend any or all other Subscriptions held by the User and the corresponding access to the DSB Services; and
- (b) shall withdraw the suspension and resume access to the DSB Services if, following written confirmation with supporting evidence from the User that it has remedied the cause of the suspension, it is satisfied that the event giving rise to the suspension will not recur; or
- (c) may terminate any or all suspended Subscriptions if the issue giving rise to the suspension has not been remedied within ninety (90) days of the suspension taking effect.

16.4 Where the User has been suspended from using DSB Services (whether under the same or different Subscriptions) three or more times the DSB shall have the right to:

- (a) notify the User under clause 2.2 that any or all of its Subscriptions will not renew and shall terminate on expiry of the Initial Subscription Period or then current Renewal Period. For the purposes of this clause 16.4 the notice period required under clause 2.2 shall not apply; or
- (b) terminate any or all Subscriptions held by the User immediately on notice.

16.5 Where the User disputes the DSB's right to suspend, the User may invoke the dispute resolution process set out in paragraph 4 of the Governance Policy.

16.6 The User may terminate this Agreement or Downgrade in accordance with clause 4.4 of the Charges Policy on ninety (90) days written notice, such notice to expire at the end of the Initial Subscription Period or then current Renewal Period as the case may be. However if the User's Subscription has commenced between ninety (90) and thirty (30) days before expiry of the Initial Subscription Period, the User may nevertheless terminate this Agreement with effect from expiry of the Initial Subscription Period by giving written notice to the DSB before such expiry.

16.7 If the User is entitled to the rights in the Subcontracting and Audit Policy (as set out in paragraph 2.1 of that Policy), the User may terminate this Agreement on written notice to the DSB at any time.

16.8 In the event that the User terminates this Agreement pursuant to clause 1.4 or clause 16.1(a), the DSB shall pay to the User a pro-rata refund of the Fees paid by the User in respect of the remainder of the Initial Subscription Period or the then current Renewal Period. No refund of Fees shall otherwise be available on termination of this Agreement.

16.9 On termination of the Subscription for any reason, this Agreement shall terminate automatically. Subject to clause 16.10 on termination of this Agreement the User's rights under this Agreement will immediately terminate, including but not limited to the right to access and make use of the DSB Service (including any Data) and the User shall immediately return to DSB any materials supplied to the User under this Agreement save where such materials (including the Data) are required to be retained by law.

16.10 Termination of this Agreement (howsoever occasioned) shall be without prejudice to any rights or liabilities which may have accrued up to the date of such termination and it shall not affect the coming into force or the continuance in force of any of its provisions which are expressly or by implication intended to come into or continue in force on or after such termination.

16.11 Without prejudice to clause 13.4(e), the DSB may retain non-personal data relating to the User's use of the DSB Service after termination of this Agreement ("Usage Data"). The User may request a record of its Usage Data from the DSB for up to 30 days following termination. The DSB shall endeavour to comply with a request from the User to delete or destroy its Usage Data after termination, but the User acknowledges and agrees that the DSB may be required by Applicable Law or an Authority to retain it or may have other legitimate reasons to do so.

17. Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity

17.1 The Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity Policy shall apply to the DSB Service.

18. Notices

18.1 Any notice required to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sufficiently served if sent:

- (a) by hand
- (b) by registered first class post or recorded delivery if the sender and recipient are both based within the United Kingdom;
- (c) by a reputable international courier if one or more of the sender or recipient is based outside of the United Kingdom; or to the addresses referred to in clause 18.3.
- (d) by e-mail,

18.2 Notices sent by hand shall be deemed to be served on the day when they are actually received. Notices sent by registered first class post or recorded delivery shall be deemed to be served three (3) days following the day of posting. Notices sent by international courier shall be deemed to be served three (3) days from the day the sender has deposited the notice with such courier. Notices sent by e-mail shall be deemed to be served upon the generation of a receipt notice by the recipient's server or, if such notice is not generated, upon delivery to the recipient's server.

18.3 For the purposes of clause 18.1 the specified addresses are:

- (a) for DSB:

FAO: Emma Kalliomaki, MD (or their successor in this role)

Physical address: [First Floor, Randall House, 6 Dowgate Hill, London, EC4R 2SU]

E-mail address: client-admin@anna-dsb.com (Legal Contact)

- (b) for the User, as specified in the Subscription Form or such other address as the relevant party may notify to the other in writing from time to time (in the manner and form specified by the DSB).

18.4 For the purposes of a Breach Notice given under paragraph 2.9 of the Acceptable Use Policy, the specified addresses of the User is as specified in the Subscription Form, or such other address for a Breach Notice as the User may notify to the DSB in writing from time to time (in the manner and form specified by the DSB).

18.5 For the purposes of a Dispute Notice given under paragraph 4.1 of the DSB Governance Policy, the specified addresses of the User is as specified in the Subscription Form, or such other address for a Dispute Notice as the User may notify to the DSB in writing from time to time (in the manner and form specified by the DSB).

- 18.6 The DSB will endeavour to send notices, Breach Notices or Dispute Notices to all of the User's specified addresses (if more than one is specified), however delivery of a notice, Breach Notice or Dispute Notice to one of the relevant specified addresses will be valid delivery. The User is responsible for ensuring that any changes to its specified addresses for receipt of notices, Breach Notices or Dispute Notices are notified to the DSB in accordance with clause 18.3, 18.4 or 18.5 (as applicable).

19. Force Majeure

- 19.1 If the performance of any of the obligations under this Agreement (save for payment of Fees) is prevented, restricted, or interfered with by cause of a Force Majeure Event the party so affected shall upon giving prompt notice to the other party, be excused from such performance without liability for indemnification for the period during which the causes of prevention, restriction or interference exist.
- 19.2 To the extent that the causes of the Force Majeure Event are avoidable or removable the party affected thereby shall take all reasonable and practicable steps to avoid or remove the said causes and complete performance of this Agreement.
- 19.3 Either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement if the Force Majeure Event continues for a consecutive period of thirty (30) days.

20. General

- 20.1 Neither party shall under any circumstances issue any public relations or advertising materials or make any public announcement regarding the other party without the other party's prior written consent.
- 20.2 A waiver of any right or remedy under this Agreement or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default.
- 20.3 A failure or delay by either party to exercise any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy provided under this Agreement or by law shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 20.4 If any provision or part-provision of this Agreement is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of this Agreement.
- 20.5 The User may not assign, novate, dispose or otherwise transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party or otherwise deal with this Agreement without the prior written consent of the DSB (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld). If the DSB gives its consent to an assignment, novation or transfer pursuant to this clause 20.5, the DSB may require the User to simultaneously assign, novate or transfer all other Subscriptions held by the User to the same third party.
- 20.6 DSB may at any time assign, novate, dispose or otherwise transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement to any third party (and in the case of novation the User shall be deemed to have consented to the terms of such novation proposed by the DSB), including where required to do so by a Designation Event. For the purpose of this clause 20.6, "Designation Event" shall mean any event as a result of which DSB is no longer designated by the Regulatory Oversight Committee ("ROC") as the service provider for the UPI system and is required to transfer the User to a successor service provider.
- 20.7 If the DSB exercises its rights under clause 20.6 in a manner which is: (i) different to its exercise of identical or similar rights in respect of other users; and (ii) which has the effect of treating the User in a manner that is less favourable comparative to other users, then the DSB shall explain its decision to the User providing as much information as is reasonable in the circumstances.

- 20.8 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between the parties in respect of the access and use of the DSB Service and supersedes any previous agreement between the parties relating to such matter. Each of the parties represents and undertakes that in entering this Agreement it does not rely on, and shall have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, warranty or undertaking (whether negligently or innocently made) of any person (whether party to this Agreement or not) other than as expressly set out in this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall operate to exclude or limit any liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 20.9 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed shall constitute a duplicate original, but all the counterparts shall together constitute the one agreement.
- 20.10 The Parties agree that the use of an electronic signature to sign this Agreement (whatever form the electronic signature takes) shall be conclusive of a Party's intention to be bound by this Agreement as if such Party signed by manuscript signature. The on-boarding and execution process for different types of Users is set out in the Subscription Management and Connectivity Policy.
- 20.11 No one other than a party to this Agreement, their successors and permitted assignees, shall have any right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1998 to enforce any of its terms.
- 20.12 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Governance Policy.
- 20.13 This Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.
